

In 1996, aged 17, MC Amon made his stage debut in the Conne Island/ Leipzig. He felt the upcoming breeze of the Drum and Bass vibe freshening up the East-German club culture and became part of it. Two years later he already got the possibility to tour Germany alongside DJ Wildchild, Mr. Twister, Stephan Enders and DMC Quincy. Together with Booga and Windy he started the Cubacrew in 2000, which should become a platform providing soulful Drum and Bass. Among his qualities as MC, Amon in 2002 released "Your Sound" (B-side), a Cubacrew production which was mixed, mastered, and 'toasted' by him. During the same year he hooked up with the Berlin Jazzcollective Ye:Solar, whom he supported as a vocalist and songwriter on an extensive tour through Germany.

MC Amon is producing his own songs since 2004 and has become a proud member of the Bionic Crew in May 2005. In August 2005 he composed the music for the documentary film 'Günni' by Dennis Thürer which reached the final at the Leipzig Documentary Film Festival.
